

Wired Networks

If you don't like the sound of a Wireless network and prefer to use the faster connection speeds that a wired solution provides, then we can install a wired network for small companies or home owners.

Having a network is a great way of sharing resources such as your internet connection or Printer and does not need to cost the earth.

Please use the Contact form if you are interested in using this service.